Opening Reception Set for Art Exhibit by People with Disabilities

An opening reception for “Creative Energy from the HeART,” an exhibit of art created by people with disabilities, will be held from 5 to 9 p.m., June 13, at the Metropolitan Multi-Service Center, 1475 West Gray.

Art League Houston, Wells Fargo and the Houston Department of Health and Human Services will sponsor the free event, featuring works created in weekly art classes offered at the center. The exhibit will be on display at the center throughout June.
